LSAT Instructor
L&S Center for Academic Excellence (CAE)

General Description
The Center for Academic Excellence in the College of Letters & Science promotes the values of a liberal arts education and finds new ways for students to make a difference locally, nationally, and globally by partnering with students to make the Wisconsin Experience a reality.

CAE fosters an inclusive teaching and learning environment that helps students reach their academic potential, attain undergraduate degrees, and realize their human promise as they become citizens of a global community.

The L&S CAE LSAT course offers students low-cost LSAT preparation. We are looking for an instructor to teach the 22 hour course. Each instructor will have 22 hours of preparation and 22 hours of teaching. Materials will be provided. Session times are negotiable over a two week window.

The 22 hour prep course will cover a pre and post LSAT test, Logical Reasoning, Reading Comprehension, and Logic Games.

Preferred Qualifications
We are looking for an instructor with some teaching experience, and LSAT score of 165+. Ability to work with a diverse audience.

Salary
$20.00/hr
