

How My Student Leadership Helps My Career Tomorrow

Presenter, Ryan Bouchard, Career Exploration Center Career Advisor and Lead Program Coordinator

Are you involved in student organizations, volunteering, internships, or serving your community on or off campus? This session will help you see how your involvement experiences transfer to your career goals and how to take your next steps. You'll reflect on how the skills and connections you've gained benefit your career goals and realize just how valuable your student engagement is to your future.
